Dear Judge, Mollway,

Prior to finding Liana's teachings, I didn't have the courage to face the truth of my life. I'd experienced sexual and Satanic Ritual abuse as a child and had spent years working with different healers and therapists to face this head-on and move through it, to no avail. Until finding Liana, I think, deep down, I didn't know if it was, in fact, possible to truly heal.

Liana's programs cover not only emotional and spiritual healing, but physical healing, through Health Mastery Institute, as well. She understands the importance of addressing healing holistically.

Working with her programs has opened me up to being truly vulnerable and honest with myself about what I've experienced and has catalyzed my healing process in profound ways.

Everything Liana puts into the world is infused with immense love. She gives a great deal for free, and all of her programs and offerings, whether free or paid, are filled with abundant value and timeless wisdom. She puts her heart and soul into everything she creates, and in being the best version of herself, she inspires her students to be the same.

I understand false accusations are being made against her, and that these accusations are being made by abusers who are frustrated that working with Liana has empowered their former victims. Her love is shining light on their darkness, and they're lashing out. Liana honors her students as sovereign adults and never uses any methods of control or manipulation.

She is simply a strong, fierce advocate for women and children, who have long been silenced in the face of abuse, and gives her students the tools to stand up and advocate for themselves. She's a true blessing, radiating humility and sincerity, and many have been radically transformed by her teachings. May the many letters coming from her students and clients shed light on the truth about this amazing woman.

Warmly,

Kathleen Ashwill (May 4, 2023 16:30 CDT)
